EXPAT EXPO

A Showcase of Wahlberliner

This week-long festival initiated by Daniel Brunet in 2013 is dedicated to presenting new work from Berlin's English-language independent performing arts community. Loosely arranged by theme, 20 performances await you over six evenings, running the gamut from traditional spoken-word theater to the post-dramatic, with everything in between. Sunday afternoon features the Expat Markt, a market and performance installation throughout our entire facility, including the historic courtyard.

PRODUCING SERIES

ART? ENJOY. DESTROY.

NIPPLE JESUS

BY NICK HORNBY

Directed and Designed by Günther Grosser
Performed by Jesse Inman

Lighting Design by Katri Kuusimäki

He doesn't know a thing about art. But being a former bouncer, Dave gets hired to guard a controversial piece of art. "Jesus on the Cross" is ten feet high by six feet wide and was created in a, well, let's say, different sort of way. There are people out there who won't like it and there are many ways of looking at it. While Dave develops his own relation to art and this particular piece, he begins defending it against his wife, the media and a whole bunch of religious fanatics. Then the shit hits the fan. In the end, his troubles come from an unexpected side.

July 10 – 12, 14 – 17, 22 – 25 | 8pm

Tickets 14 € (8 € Students)

COMEDY

INTERNATIONAL COMEDY SHOWCASE

In recent years, Berlin's transformation into the cultural capital of Europe has also brought about an explosion of English-language comedy. ETB | IPAC's monthly International Comedy Showcase combines international headliners with multiple forms of comedy by local artists, including stand-up, short-form and long-form improv and musical comedy in our gorgeous 120-seat auditorium.

Saturday, July 18 | 8pm

CONCERT

TERESA BERGMAN

Singer-songwriter Teresa Bergman is not your average girly with a guitar. Her brand of eclectic original folk-funk music with a twist of jazz and soul has been compared to the likes of Fiona Apple and Ani DiFranco.
